

APPENDIX F INTERVIEWS

Appendix F Interviews

| Last Name | First Name | Title                             | Interviewer | Interview Date | Area(s) Addressed  | Years Onsite | Information Provided  |
|-----------|------------|-----------------------------------|-------------|----------------|--|--------------|---|
| Stone     | Scott      | Petty Officer, SK-2               | A. Stattel  | 9/28/06        | All areas of NMCRC Reading property  | 2            | Not aware of any hazardous material or petroleum spills occurring at the facility since 2004. Facility still registers as RCRA SQG due to wastes generated by Marines. Compressor in boiler room (for even heat distribution) has been broken for 3 years. No knowledge of air permit for natural gas boiler. Boiler room just passed inspection in Summer 2006. He has not seen any reports or records pertaining to 1994 on-site UST removal. |
| Letterman | Gary       | Staff Sergeant, Maintenance Chief | A. Stattel  | 9/28/06        | Marines Motor T, wash pad and portable hazardous materials storage trailer | 1            | No knowledge of spills or releases to environment. Sorbent pads are used for small spills on concrete or blacktop. Portable power wash/containment system for vehicle washing has been broken for over one year. MSDS binder is updated frequently and serves as an inventory of the hazardous materials they store. Wastes are picked up monthly by waste disposal contractor.   |
| Benissa   | Lynn       | Administrative Assistant          | A. Stattel  | 10/16/06       | Adjacent Police Barracks LUST at 600 Kenhorst Blvd.                        | NA           | State Police contact (Mike Kozik) who was familiar with this property's environmental issues just retired and she was unable to provide contact information. The police captain asked that inquiries be directed to the State's Land Management Office (717) 705-5764.  |
| Knoll     | Bill       | LUST Contact, PADEP Cleanup Dept. | A. Stattel  | 10/23/06       | Adjacent Police Barracks LUST at 600 Kenhorst Blvd.                        | NA           | PADEP file for 600 Kenhorst Blvd. does not contain reports on assessment or cleanup. There are several notifications for petroleum releases dating back to 1989 with no subsequent submittals.  |